Notes of Interest

- ⇒ Tuesday's graduation serves as our mid-week service this week. We have our Kindergarten graduation and awards program followed by a reception in the Activity Building. Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend.
- ⇒ Vacation Bible School is eight weeks away (Sunday-Thursday, July 9-13)! There is a brief meeting after the AM service today for all that signed up or would like to help.
- ⇒ Several Academy students, under Mrs. Botha's direction, comprise the Yearbook Staff and this year's yearbook is well done. We have put copies in the foyer for you to view. It is a great snapshot of an excellent group of students and staff.
- ⇒ We would like to once again give our Elementary Sunday School teachers a break during the summer. We need 3-5 people that would be willing to teach from June through August. We can accommodate vacations and times when you are away. Let Pastor Rogers or Larry Kerns know if you are willing to help.

Some Other Notes ...

- ◇ The reading schedule: I Chronicles 3-22 and John 8:1-10:42.
- ◇ The financial statement is distributed to our Deacons and Trustees at our monthly meetings, but occasionally we offer it for distribution more broadly. Copies of the April financial statement are at the information desk. If we run out, please let someone in the office know.
- ◇ Don't forget - 30 and over basketball every Tuesday from 6-7:30 PM.
- ◇ Deacons & Trustees—Please remember your ministry forms.

UPDATE

Congratulations to those graduating from an academic institution this year. Academic institutions have long been a part of society and even the Scripture references formal training (school of the Prophets, rabbinical schools, even Jesus with His disciples). The success of an academic institution is rooted in their comprehension of “truth.” Learning is not done in a vacuum. While one might postulate that academia can be separated from philosophy, history proves that ideal impossible. Even today we see how secular institutions have rejected teaching of God to embrace self-actualization. Churches are on the front lines in confronting humanism. Thank you for your faithful support of our efforts.
