WELCOME

We welcome our visitors, and hope you will enjoy your time with us today. If you need any help, please let an usher know.

CALENDAR

- 10.22 Baptism in the AM service. If you are a believer and would like to be baptized, see Pastor Wright.
- 10.27 College & Career Bible study at O-60 Café, 7:00-8:00 PM

Quote of the Day

“Leadership is influence.”

NOTE WORTHY

- Bible Reading Schedule for from today (Sunday) through Saturday: Isaiah 56-Jeremiah 6 and I Thessalonians 3-I Timothy 1.
- Today Pastor Rogers will be speaking for the services. Pastor & Mrs. Wright are in Atlanta today attending a baby dedication for their granddaughter. Pastor Wright will be back early in the week and resume the study of I Corinthians on Wednesday night.
- The Seniors Saints schedule is available at the information desk. Our next activity is a lunch after the morning service to decide what our Christmas missionary projects will be.
- Academy News: The Academy soccer/volleyball teams have completed their regular season. As part of ODACS, the teams will participate in the end-of-season tournament that begins Monday.
- Flyers are available for the Creation Seminar, October 29-November 1 with Dave Woetzel (check him out at DinoDave.com). During the Mon.-Wed. seminars, we will have a creation video for our 3 yr. olds-3rd grade young people. We may change the age depending on the seminar. We need some volunteers to oversee the children’s meetings.

REMEMBER

“You can do these things and not be spiritual but you can’t be spiritual without doing these things.” Example 2 - Bible reading: You can read the Bible for information and inspiration but still not be “spiritual.” The Bible is God’s chosen communication to mankind—you. It is different from every other book you read. Human authors are limited in scope and experience. God revealed to His chosen authors everything He wanted us to know about “life and godliness” (II Peter 1:3). To benefit from reading, you must interact with God as you read. The book is simple but complex. Read with an intent to make application—you must be under the authority of its author.
