NOTE WORTHY - 9/7/25

- We will have a brief Deacons and Trustees meeting in the conference room after the morning service.
- On Wednesday, the parent of our teens are invited to attend the Royalty Club for a parent night. Pastor Moore will go over the plan for the year and an activities schedule.
- This week is the AACCS (American Association of Christian Schools) National Legislative Conference in Washington, DC. Both Pastors Wright and Rogers will attend. Included are visits to our legislators. This year, we will encourage our representatives to support expanding school choice and the Safeguarding Charities Act.
- The teen Bigger and Better Activity is on Saturday, Sept. 13, from 3:00-5:00 PM. We will meet at the church. Pastor Moore needs a couple of drivers with pick-up trucks.
- Next Sunday, we are beginning our new series of Growth Classes. We will have the music class (choir) and four other age-divided courses (children, young adults, children in the home, and empty-nesters), with the hope of growing and dividing. You can sign up for the classes at the information desk.
- Next Sunday, both G.R.O.W. groups will meet for lunch after the morning service. We will have pizza, chips (A-MM), and dessert (N-Z). We need a count to order the pizza accurately. Please let Pastor Wright or Pastor Moore know your plans.

Facts & FIGURES

Thank you for prying for our opening day of classes. Part of the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20) is “teaching them to observe all that I commanded you.” Children have a conscience that prompts them about right and wrong, but one’s conscience can be dulled and even seared. The world is not going to take up the mantle of teaching God’s laws. Instructing (teaching the Bible) is the responsibility of homes and churches. Keystone Baptist Church has the privilege of having an educational arm as part of our ministry. We have a preschool, Academy, and homeschool division, and with each is an opportunity and responsibility. This year, we have 150 Academy students, 29 in preschool, and 9 in Keystone Christian Homeschool. With the staff, we have well over 200 people in the building on a daily basis. That is wonderful! This means we are busy fulfilling the educational part of the Great Commission We are training both children and parents. Your prayers and support are noticed and greatly appreciated.
