NOTE WORTHY - 10/26/25

- After this morning's service, G.R.O.W. Group 1 will meet in the conference room to receive their assignments. The winter makes it difficult to visit in the evening, so while we are not on DST, we will meet after the AM service and report during the Wednesday night Bible study.
- On Monday, we will not have access to restroom facilities for a few hours while our septic system is upgraded. Because of this, we do not have Preschool or Academy classes.
- On Wednesday, we will have a Harvest Party in the Patch Clubs. The young people are welcome to come in costume and will parade through the sanctuary. Costumes should be “appropriate.” That means not glorifying unbiblical themes. Help your child choose something that would glorify the Lord.
- Next Sunday, we have a Deacons, Trustees and Wives lunch with our evangelist. We will have a short meeting and prayer time. Carol DeHaven sent out an email about the food. Please see her if you have not responded to the email.
- We need a few more volunteers to help with the pre-service meals on November 3-5. If you can help, let us know. If you are coming to the meal, sign up at the information desk.
- Congratulations to our Academy soccer and volleyball teams. Both advanced to the ODACS A finals at Landmark Baptist in Richmond. This weekend, we will know how they fared. Depending on how they do, both teams may have the opportunity to play in the ODACS AA tournament.

Facts & FIGURES

October 31 is Halloween. Should a believer celebrate Halloween? Over the years, we have studied Halloween and the relationship believers should have with it. Several things influence our decisions. First, we must ask, “What does Halloween celebrate?” The answer is, at best, unclear. For the children, it is often about the candy, but it is increasingly becoming something that focuses on the occult. Scripture reminds readers that the spirit world is very real. Good and evil angels battle for dominance. Demon possession was and is a scary reality. Ephesians 6:12 reminds believers that “our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places.” Secondly, is the question of whether a believer can celebrate this day to the glory of God. (I Corinthians 10:31). Most holidays have a clear purpose and focal point. This holiday is pointed towards that conflict with biblical truth and good doctrine. With that in mind, let's be careful to make choices that do not diminish our effectiveness as witnesses for Christ. On the other hand, you may have young people coming to your door. It might be wise to give them a sweet treat, but use the occasion to give them a tract as well.
